A WARD

(Passed on this 28th day of July, 2008)

By order dated 10-3-98, the Government of Goa in exercise of powers conferred by Clause (d) of sub-section (1) of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act has referred the following dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication:

- "(1) Whether the action of the workmen of M/s. Fort Aguada Beach Resort, Singerim, under the banner of Fort Aguada Beach Resort Employees Union "resorting to strike at the said hotel with effect from 24-12-1994 to 4-4-1995 is legal and justified?"
- (2) (a) "Whether the demand of Fort Aguada Beach Resort Employees Union for payment of wages to the 133 striking workmen during the strike period from 24-12-1994 to 4-4-1995 is legal and justified?"
- (2) (b) If not, to what relief the workmen are entitled?"

2. On receipt of the reference, IT/19/98 was registered. Notices were issued to both parties. The Party I has filed claim statement at Exb. 4. The Party I has stated that vide letter dated 27-6-1994 it had submitted a charter of demand to the Party II. The Party II did not consider the demand on the contrary transferred Shri Laxman Malwankar, President of Fort Aguada Beach Resort to Madras on the pretext that he was being sent for training. Vide letter dated 11-11-1994, the Party I served a strike notice on the Party II, demanding settlement of charter of demands and withdrawal of transfer order issued to Mr. Malwankar. Despite the notice the Party II did not discuss the demands. The Labour Commissioner intervened in the dispute however he was unable to resolve the dispute due to adamant attitude and rigid stand of the Party II. The Party I has stated that instead of considering its demand the Party II served a charge sheet to Mr. Malwankar and hurriedly concluded the enquiry ex parte and dismissed Mr. Malwankar from service w.e.f. 16-1-1995. The Party I has stated that in view of the adamant and unhelpful attitude of the Party II it had resorted to strike w.e.f. 24-12-1994. The strike was withdrawn from 5-4-1995 on an oral assurance given by the Party II that there would be no victimization of the Party II for having participated in the strike and that all the outstanding issues would be settled amicably across the table. However, the Party II suspended seven employees with immediate effect and transferred eight employees to far away places in India and also issued charge sheets to several other employees. The Party I has stated that its action in resorting to strike was legal and justified and as such they are entitled to wages for the strike period from 24-12-1994 to 4-4-1995.

4. The Party II filed its written statement at Exb. 5. The Party II has stated that the Party I has no locus standi to raise any demand on behalf of the employees of the Company. The Party II has stated that the demands submitted by the Party I were considered however since the financial impact of the demand was working out to Rs. 15 crore which was more than the budgeted business the Party II informed the union that the demands were not reasonable and requested it to submit a fresh charter of demands. The Party II has stated that the union did not forward any fresh charter of demand but insisted that the withdrawal of deputation order of Mr. Laxman Malwankar was a precondition to resolve the charter of demand. The management did not accept the said precondition and called upon the union to come forward to discuss the demands. Thereafter the union gave a strike notice dated 11-11-1994. The Party II has stated the conciliation proceedings ended in failure and the dispute of charter of demands was referred to the Tribunal vide order No. 28/55/94-LAB dated 20-12-1994. The Party II had displayed a copy of the order of reference on the notice board and informed the workers that any strike action resorted to by them would be illegal and unjustified. Despite which the union/workmen went on strike w.e.f. 24-12-1994. The Party II stated that the strike was illegal and unjustified and as such the Party I is not entitled to any relief.

6. Following issues were framed:

- 1 Whether the Party I/Union proves that the action of the workmen in resorting to strike from 24-12-1994 to 4-4-1995 is legal and justified?
- 2 Whether the Party I/Union proves that its demand for wages to the 133 striking workmen during the strike period from 24-12-1994 to 4-4-1995 is legal and justified?
- 3 Whether the Party II proves that the Party I/Union has no locus standi to raise the demand/dispute on behalf of the workers of the Party II as it was not a recognized union of the establishment?
- 4 Whether the workmen are entitled to any relief?
- 5 What Award?

7. The matter was fixed for evidence. On 11-6-2008 the President of the union filed an application stating that the management has settled all the disputes arising out of the strike of December, 1994 to the satisfaction of the union and that it does not wish to pursue with the matter of strike wages. The application at Exb. 12 clearly indicates that the matter has been amicably resolved and the dispute which was referred by the Government by order dated 10-3-1998 no longer survives.

No order as to costs.

Inform the Government accordingly.

A WARD

(Passed on this 1st day of August, 2008)

In exercise of powers conferred by Clause (d) of sub-section (1) of Section 10 of the said Act, 1947, by order dated 29-12-1999, the Government of Goa has referred to this Industrial Tribunal the following dispute for adjudication:

"(1) Whether the action of the employer, M/s. Dattaguru Furnitures, Valpoi, Satari, Goa in refusing employment to S/Shri Pandurang J. Patil and Gopal B. Malsekar, Gopal S. Mauskar and Narayan G. Malsekar, workmen, with effect from 19-11-1997 is legal and justified ?

(2) If not, to what relief the workmen are entitled ?"

2. On receipt of the reference, IT/9/2000 was registered. Notices were issued to both parties. The Party I has filed claim statement at Exb. 3. The Party I has stated that the workmen, Shri Pandurang J. Patil and Shri Gopal B. Malsekar, Gopal S. Mauskar and Narayan G. Malsekar were employed with the Party II which is a partnership firm engaged in the business of furniture. The workmen, Shri Pandurang J. Patil and Shri Narayan G. Malsekar were in employment of the Party II since 1978, Shri Gopal B. Malsekar was in employment of the Party II since 1983 and Gopal S. Mauskar was in employment of the Party II since 1987. The Party I has stated that on 19-11-1997 the Party II refused employment to the said workmen without any justifiable reasons. The said workmen joined Goa Trade and Commercial Workers Union on 24-11-1997 and vide letter dated 25-11-1997 the union called upon the Party II to reinstate these workmen. Copy of the said letter was also addressed to the Asstt. Labour Commissioner with a request to intervene in the matter. The conciliation proceedings initiated by the Asstt. Labour Commissioner ended in failure, hence the reference. The Party I has stated that the action of the Party II in refusing employment to the said workmen is illegal and unjustified. The Party I has sought reinstatement of service of these workmen with full back wages and continuity in service.

3. The Party II filed its written statement at Exb. 7. The Party II has stated that the union has no locus standi to represent the workers. The Party II has stated that the workers were employed as daily wage workers and they had stopped reporting for work without any reasons. The Party II has stated that since these workers had abandoned the work they are not entitled to any relief.

4. Following issues were framed:

- 1 Whether the Party I/Union proves that it has locus standi to file statement of claim on behalf of the workman ?
- 2 Whether the Party I/Union proves that the Party II refused employment to the workmen w.e.f. 19-11-1997 ?
- 3 Whether the Party I/Union proves that the Party II did not comply with the provisions of Sec. 25 F of the I. D. Act, 1947 at the time of refusal of employment to the workmen ?
- 4 Whether the Party I/Union proves that refusal of employment by the Party II to the workmen w.e.f. 19-11-1997 is illegal and unjustified ?
- 5 Whether the Party II proves that the reference is not maintainable for the reasons stated in para 1 of the written statement ?
- 6 Whether the Party II proves that the workmen abandoned their services w.e.f. 19-11-1997 ?
- 7 Whether the workmen are entitled to any relief ?
- 8 What Award ?

5. The workmen, Shri Pandurang Patil, Gopal B. Malsekar, Shri Gopal S. Mauskar and the Party II had already settled the matter amicably vide consent terms at Exb. 23. Pursuant to the said terms Party I award dated 11-7-2008 was drawn. The workman, Shri Narayan Mhalsekar and the Party II have also settled the matter amicably and have filed consent terms at Exb. 24. The said terms at Exb. 24 are acceptable to the workman and the Party II. In my opinion the said terms are in the interest of the workman and hence I pass the following award as per the settlement at Exb. 24.

ORDER

- 1 It is agreed by and between the parties that the Party II M/s. Dattaguru Furnitures shall pay a sum of Rs. 7000/- (Rupees Seven thousand only) to the Party I/workman Shri Narayan Mhalsekar in full and final settlement of his claim against the Party II M/s. Dattaguru Industry.
- 2 The above mentioned amount shall be paid by the Party II to Shri Narayan Mhalsekar within two weeks from today.

A WARD

(Passed on this 18th day of August, 2008)

By order dated 27-8-07, the Government of Goa has referred to this Industrial Tribunal the following dispute for adjudication:

- "(1) Whether Mr. Ashley do Rosario, working Journalist is entitled to wages for the month of December, 2001, amounting to rupees ten thousand from the management of M/s. Herald Publications Private Limited, or not ?
- (4) If the answer (1) above is in the affirmative, then to what relief Mr. Ashley do Rosario is entitled ?"

2. On receipt of the reference, IT/2/08 was registered. Notices were issued to both parties. The records indicate that the Party I remained present on 4-3-2008 and on 31-3-08 and on both these dates he had sought time to file claim statement. The matter was posted on 6-6-2008 for filing claim statement however both parties failed to remain present on 6-6-2008 and also on subsequent dates i.e. on 28-7-2008 and 14-8-08. It need not be emphasized that having raised the dispute the Party I was not required to plead and prove that he was entitled to receive from the Party II an amount of Rs. 10,000/- towards his wages for the month of December, 2001. In the instant case the Party I has neither filed his claim statement nor appeared before the Tribunal consequently he has failed to plead and prove that he is entitled for Rs. 10,000/- towards wages for the month of December, 2001 and as such he is not entitled for any relief. Hence I pass the following order:

ORDER

He had reported to work on 7-9-00 on which date he was asked to sign on a register which was maintained for temporary workers. management to allow him to sign on the register of permanent workers. However, the management refused to concede to his request and stated that his services are no longer required. The Party I has stated that the Party II refused employment to him w.e.f. 9-9-00. The Party I has stated that the action of the management in refusing employment to him w.e.f. 9-9-00 is illegal, unjustified and bad in law.
